Thank you to the committee for the invitation and all the exhibitors for a super entry, it was a lovely day

Minor Puppy Dog

1st Mrs F Pynegar 's, Scooby vd Heidezoom vom Berwynfa (Imp), Red dog puppy who is square and balanced in outline, good layback of shoulder , good bone expressive dark eye. Head is just right for this age with a very good mouth Moved well for a baby, handled well.

2nd Mr S Palmer's, Olleyville Billy Buck Blue via Palerty, Very rangy smart pup, a real baby lots more to come, clean head with a broad muzzle and wide mouth, not quite as good as one on movement.

3rd Mr P Riley Regal in Red and White.

Puppy Dog

1st Mr & Mrs A & D Huggins, Daervlish All Because Of You, This puppy shouts male at you very square full of substance and bone, lovely tight feet with a pleasing head and mouth, dark expressive eye moved with drive and purpose, there will surely be more success to come for him. Showed himself off to his best to win Best Dog Puppy and Best Puppy in Show.

2nd Mrs V Jackson's, Lorrosha Hugh and Me, Slightly longer in cast than one .With a well padded muzzle and good mouth correct shaped eye, in excellent condition.

3rd Mrs K. Slaney's, Heres Looking at You Kid

Junior Dog

1st Mr & Mrs K&G Jones's Kevanor Federer, Dark brindle dog of great quality so much to like about him, he catches your eye from the moment he comes into the ring, handled to show off his balanced body to its best, lovely typical boxer head with no exaggerations, good straight mouth . Didn't put a foot wrong in the challenge to get Best Dog and Best in Show against some other lovely dogs.

2nd Mr S Dixon's Hey Jude from Newlaithe, He is a larger dog than the winner of class with bone and substance. Head is balanced with dark eye a good mouth correct layback of shoulder, moved around the ring well.

3rd Mr D Wood's Jantamel Flutes Trooper

Yearling Dog

1st Mr & Mrs Welch's Newlaithe Trojan, red dog who is a real showman, correct forehead, good neck, short strong back, well angulated quarters, moved soundly with drive, strong but clean head with a good mouth, evident chin, dark well shaped eyes, presents lovely profile, expertly handled Reserve Best Dog on another day this could be the other way around.

2nd Mrs J Stewart's landian Certain Kinda Charm by Boxyjen, Red dog showed in immaculate condition, stylish but longer in loin than 1, a pleasing head with a good mouth moved and handled well.

3rd Mr D Wood's Jantamel Flutes Trooper

Novice Dog

1st Mrs E Woolliss', Rameleon The Risk Taker, Brindle dog with a nice head good body very difficult to assess as he really was giving his handler a rough time but was the best dog in the class.

2nd Mr Atkins's Yorkshire Boy, Red dog square outline, really tried hard and gave his best but was not at all sure what was expected of him.

3rd Mr P Riley's Casper Ace of Swords
